

ANCHORAGE DEANERY REPORTS FOR 2017

St. Juvenaly Orthodox Church

Wasilla, AK

Fr. Mikel Bock

Master bless!

Sadly I report no Weddings or Baptisms, Happily I report no funerals.

We have been able to get all the icons done for our Iconostas and put up. The woodwork still needs to be finished. We financially support a seminarian at St. Tikhon's, who was ordained a Subdeacon in September.

St. Innocent Cathedral

Anchorage, AK

Fr. John Zabinko, Fr. Peter Chris

37 – Baptisms

3 – Chrismations

5 – Marriages

6 – Funerals

St. Innocent Cathedral celebrated it's 50th Anniversary of it's founding on September 16 – 17, 2017 (1967 – 2017). On August 6, 2017 the Cathedral said good bye to Archpriest Christopher Stanton and his family, who moved back to Tennessee.

St. Alexis Chapel

Anchorage, AK

Fr. Jonah Andrew

7 – Baptisms

1 – Funeral

There is a regular schedule of services at St. Alexis, except for feast days. The faithful are encouraged to attend St Innocent or St Tikhon on feast days when they fall during the week. I would like to invite visiting clergy from the diocese to come and celebrate when ever possible.

St. Herman

Fairbanks, AK

Fr. Andrew Wassillie

7 – Baptism & Chrismation

0 – Weddings & Funerals

St. Tikhon's

Anchorage, AK

Fr. Daniel Andrejuk

3- Baptisms

1 - Wedding

In May new siding was put on the church

In July Konstantin was able to fresco the narthex, and that completed the entire church. We have had 2 Archpastoral visits, His Grace served Liturgy on Holy Saturday and the Feast of Transfiguration During the Liturgy on the Feast of Transfiguration, His Grace Bishop David tonsured Nicholas Cragle a reader

October 9th marks the 10th anniversary of Saint Tikhon Church.